3. My Motivations for Applying to the WINGS-FMSP Program and my Visions for my Future Career

State why you wish to apply to the WINGS-FMSP course, and what you plan for your career after graduating from the PhD program. Describe how you wish to contribute to interdisciplinary research or research relevant to society. Also provide your self-assessments on your strengths and achievements of special note (e.g. research presentations, exceptional academic achievements, awards).

Name of applicant: _____

4. Research background

- (1) Describe your research up to the present point. You may include your graduation project, and studies equivalent to such projects (e.g. Special Experiments, Theoretical exercises). For the following three categories, you must list only those works in which you played a central role. List each item with a running number, and state "None applicable" for a category for which you do not have anything to list.
- (2) Presentations given at conferences and symposia, both domestic and international (Divide your list into oral and poster, as well as reviewed and non-reviewed, presentations, and mark them accordingly.) List only those presentations that have been given by the applicant themselves. For each item, you should provide the names of all authors (including the applicant, in the same order as at the time of the presentation; you may omit part of the list of names by substituting them with "and ___ others" if there are many co-authors), the name of the conference, the identification number for your paper, location, and month and year of your presentation. (Presentations planned for the future should be excluded, except in cases where your submissions have already been accepted. In such a case, you must attach a document verifying the acceptance of your paper.)
- (3) Papers published in academic journals and books (you may list preprints and articles published (will be published) in Conference Proceedings. Divide your list into reviewed and non-reviewed publications.) For each item, you must list the names of all authors (including the applicant, in the same order as in the paper; you may omit part of the list of names by substituting them with "and ___ others" if there are many co-authors), your paper title, name of the journal, publisher, volume and issue, page numbers, and year of publication, in this order. For papers already accepted but not yet published, you must attach documents verifying the acceptance of your papers.
- (4) Other (e.g. awards)
